

CARROZZE DI MAREMMA

HISTORY

- Carrozze di Maremma was founded in 2007 by Enrico Cheli, who were born in the maremma, thanks to the help and the collaboration of the venerinary friend Andrea.
- At his twenties, Enrico discovers the passion for the equestrian world and starts his pathway to agonism, from the show jumping to the cross-country. Over the time, what started out as a hobby becomes a job. Enrico learns as horse farmer and trainer and later, in 2011, he becomes a Environmental Equestrian Guide (GAE), which is the only nationally recognised figure
- From 2011, Carrozze di Maremma, has its headquartes in Albarese, near the Maremma Regional Park. In the same location is located also Enrico's Azienda Agricola Compagnia dei Carri , where he breeds and cultivates, in addition to horses, alpacas, cinta senese pigs also melons, tomatoes, cucumbers and onions, which are fundamentals ingridients for Panzanella, which you will be able to taste during the carriage ride.

HORSES

- Their 8 horses: Rambo, Flora, Violet, Turip, Mojito, Jago, Furia e Selva, are heavy draft horses, morphologically structured to pull heavy weights. Breeds vary from the Caitpr, and Comtois, to the Shire.

- The carriages are covered, fitted with tyres and cushioned. In addition, the seats are padded and comfortable to ensure our customers' comfort during the tour.

THE CARRIAGES

BEACH OF COLLELUNGO

- Located in the middle of the Maremma Natural Park, we find this wonderful, wide and wild beach.
- Surrounded by sand dunes with characteristic Maremman vegetation, it is semi-deserted even in high summer. The sea is transparent.
- It is the ideal place for lovers of nature, silence and tranquillity.
